A great many of our exchanges say "It Looks Like Parker." Well if it looks so much like him it must be his.

It is said that Roosevelt is rich, but that won't keep him from feeling like 30 cents after the 8th of next November.

We wrote something about "the Kentuckian's blossoming rose," but the printer set it up "blossoming nose." Let it go at that.

It is said that Miss Effie Gas has the richest gold mine in Alaska. This compels us to say that we would like to be her Gas meeter.

A newspaper calls Col. William J. Bryan "Gas Bill." That is an egregious mistake, for a gas bill invariably gets in once a month, while Col. Bryan can't even break in.

In this campaign we want all the good Populists to renew their allegiance to the Democratic party. All the other kind will, however, have to make their own arrangements.

Scientists are now trying to find out how to recognize a female musquito from a male. We suppose the only way to get at it is to believe that the female is the one that gets mashed on a man's face.

At a conference of the Momon church the other day at Salt Lake City, it was decided again to abandon Polygamy. We'll never believe it until Polyamy sues for a divorce and gets it on the ground of abandonment.

Now comes Senator Gorman to say that he has not announced himself in favor of Judge Parker for the Democratic nomination for President and that he has not expressed a preference one way or the other.

A pretty Pennsylvania girl shot a man the other day because he scorned her. A poor man always gets the worst of it. When he scorns a girl he gets shot and when the girl scorns him he gets half shot. When a man gets scorned why he just gets corned.

An Afghan chief just over the India border is making war because one of his wives ran away and no one will tell him where she is. He declares that she is his principal help-meet. We presume that he wants her back home to help meet expenses, for evidently she's got money.

FIRST WEEK ENDED.

New Hanover Superior Court Begins New Term With Important Case To-morrow.

THE JURORS SUMMONED.

Celebrated Penny Damage Suit Once Again for Trial—The Proceedings Yesterday—Several for Roads—Pender County Case—Notes.

The first week's term of New Hanover Superior Court for the trial of both civil and criminal causes expired by limitation last midnight and Judge Ferguson left in the afternoon for Newbern to preside over Craven court beginning to-morrow. A two-week's term for New Hanover immediately follows the one of shorter duration just expired and Judge M. H. Justice will preside by exchange of courts with Judge Ferguson. The term will be convened, also for the trial of civil and criminal causes, at 10 A. M. to-morrow. A grand jury will be regularly drawn and empanelled, but it is hardly expected that there will be much business for its attention. Civil suits will be taken up as speedily as possible according to the calendar arranged by the attorneys and previously published in these columns.

Perhaps the most interesting case of the entire two weeks is that of B. F. Penny vs. W. C., & A. Railway which is set for to-morrow and in which the plaintiff sues for $20,000 damages alleged to have been sustained by him by reason of the negligence of the defendant in not protecting him while as a passenger from Wilmington to Leland, N. C., he was shot by Sam Calloway, an unruly negro who upon his ejection from the coach, fired into the train at the latter station as the plaintiff was leaving the car on a Sunday afternoon in September, 1898. The negro boarded the train at Wilmington and was threatened with ejectment at Navassa. The case has thrice been tried in the Superior Court here; first in 1900 when a verdict of $6,000 was awarded the plaintiff and set aside upon a technicality by Judge W. A. Hoke; again a year later when a mistrial resulted, and still again in 1903 when upon intimation of Judge Peebles, the plaintiffs took a non-suit and appealed to the Supreme Court, the appeal having been sustained and the new trial now about to be entered upon having been granted. An array of fine legal talent appears in the case as follows: Herbert McClammy, Esq., A. J. Marshall, Esq., ex-Judge E. K. Bryan and Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy for the plaintiff, and Hon. John D. Bellamy, Messrs. Davis & Davis and Messrs. Rountree & Carr for the defence. The other cases set for Monday are not important.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Yesterday's proceedings were of no interest. Court met at 10 A. M. and adjourned about 12:30 P. M. Of the talesmen ordered for the day, the Sheriff returned as summoned all except M. L. Winner, W. S. Craig, Sr., J. W. Gate, Jno. C. Heyer and D. D. George who were not found. Routine cases were disposed of as follows:

Caroline Wise vs. James McMillan et al, judgment for plaintiff in sum of $63.83; appeal to Supreme Court.

A. D. Wessell vs. L. Keive, judgment for $127.13 as per terms of compromise.

Lena Wessell et al. vs. Annie Howard, and Margaret Magarahan et al. vs. A. G. Rieaud, receiver, transferred to motion docket.

Judgment against David Gordon, colored, upon whom a fine of $5 and costs was imposed for an assault with a deadly weapon, was stricken out upon failure to pay and defendant was sentenced to two months on the roads.

THE HOLLY SHELTER CASE.

In the celebrated "Holly Shelter Railroad" case, known as H. B. Newton et al. vs. H. A. Brown et al., Iredell Meares, Esq., attorney for the defendant, yesterday served notice on Hon. John D. Bellamy and Messrs. Rountree & Carr, attorneys for the plaintiffs, that on Tuesday of this week at 10 A. M., he would make a motion before Judge Justice, holding court here, to require the plaintiffs to file a bond to indemnify the defendants against loss by reason of cutting the timber from the land claimed by the defendants, if they should finally make good their title thereto; and also for an order to require the plaintiffs from time to time to furnish the court with a statement showing the amount of timber which they shall cut and remove from the lands in dispute.

JURORS FOR THIS WEEK.

The jurors summoned for this week are as follows: D. J. Fergus, W. T. Mercer, W. H. Lamb, Arthur Branch, T. D. Jenkins, E. L. Knight, W. G. Craig, E. T. Conway, J. H. Johnson, Steven Sneeden, H. Woollcott, W. L. Coble, W. A. McGowan, John C. Bowden, J. O. Smith, George F. Seitter, Charles M. Butler, Edward A. Kerr, A. M. Hall, W. M. Godwin, Chas. W. Worth, Albert M. Pate, B. Solomon, J. F. Casteen, W. S. Craig, Sr., L. M. Guttenburg, Eric Norden, R. F. Brown, A. L. McNorton, J. C. Friar, F. P. Lemon, Fred. Tiencken, Harris W. Howard, C. F. Seitter, Jno. S. Piver, S. A. Greelish.

First of the Season.

The STAR is in receipt of a quart of large well ripened strawberries grown on one of Dr. E. Porter's Rocky Point farms by Mr. W. S. Balcombe, who shipped his first full crate yesterday and will make other and larger shipments early next week. The frost never hurts a hustling young man very much.

PRODUCTION NEXT WEEK.

The Only Historic Monument in North Carolina to be Erected by the Society of Colonial Dames.

On April 29th, this patriotic society will present those wonderful musical extravaganzas, "The Little Tycoon" and "The Chinese Honeymoon." The performance is to increase the fund for the erection of a monument to the Colonial and Revolutionary heroes and patriots of the Cape Fear section, to be placed in the very near future at the intersection of those beautiful streets, Market and Fifth.

"No higher duty devolves upon faithful States than to preserve the memory of their noble men." To perform the duty has been the plan and purpose of this society from the beginning, and for ten years, always with this end in view, it has worked and striven and garnered its resources until to-day, with nearly two thousand dollars possible, the locality we hope granted by the City Fathers, plans and specifications drawn, this monument is assuming material shape. All our people should contribute to this beautiful and patriotic work. This society feels itself but an humble instrument in creating and awakening an interest in the past, the history and traditions of which should go hand in hand with the work of the present.

A large and appreciative audience is promised for the performance of April 29th, when the following cast will present the Little Tycoon and Chinese Honeymoon with the brilliant stage settings and gorgeous costumes of that oriental country:

PLAINTIVE NOTE FROM JAIL.

Rocky Point Negro Demonstrated His Appealing Power to Judge and Solicitor.

When the average "cullud pusson" gets in trouble and is about to face the court for his misdeeds, his long suit is his easy faculty of assuming the role of most humble mendicant. Last week Judge Ferguson and Solicitor Duffy received from the jail the following missive from Joe Moore, who was charged with carrying a concealed weapon and whose strenuosity as a pleader, secured for him a light sentence. The letter is quoted verbatim:

"Wilmington n. c. march the 31 1901 dear Sir mr. Surlister and onarble Judge: I permit (submit) to my case and ask the murcy off The coort and Beg to The onarble coat to Please have murcy a pon me and Let me off just as Light as you all can if yoo please sir Be cause I was out off the City Lemitz and did not mean any harm and was not raisen any des turbence neather was I and any Body cross a tall and I has Bin in Jail over a months time and my wife is sick in Bed and my home is at Rocky Point N. Sad Death of Infant.

Jerome A. Cavanaugh, infant son of Mrs. Dosie Cavanaugh, who died last January while her husband was fighting for his country in the Philippines, followed the mother to the grave yesterday after a week's illness with meningitis at the home of the grandmother, No. 1010 North Third street. The funeral will be conducted from the residence at 10:30 A. M. to-day by Rev. Geo. B. Webster and the remains will be laid to rest in Bellevue. The child was only six months of age and had never looked upon the face of his father, who has been in the Philippines since its birth.

Mr. J. B. Wilkinson Dead.

Many friends throughout this section will learn with regret of the death of Mr. J. B. Wilkinson, which occurred of paralysis at his home in Atlanta yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Wilkinson was about 60 years of age and leaves two daughters and five sons, nearly all grown. For a number of years he conducted a saw mill at Alma, N. C., and was later proprietor of Cleveland Springs until 1895 when he removed with his family to Atlant. He was a brother-in-law of Messrs. C. H. Fore and E. S. Lathrop, of this city, who were advised of the death by telegraph yesterday.

—President Sig C. Mayer, of Morris D. Neumann & Co., cigar manufacturers, Baltimore, is in the city.

THE RURAL SCHOOLS.

Final Meeting of New Hanover Teachers' Association Held Here Yesterday.

END OF SCHOLASTIC YEAR.

Seven Months Term for All Districts About Completed—University Summer School Commended—Compliment to Prof. Catlett.

The final meeting of the New Hanover County Teachers' Association for the present scholastic year was held yesterday morning in the Cape Fear Academy building, Prof. Washington Catlett, the president, in the chair, and Mr. Jno. M. Wright, principal of the Myrtle Grove school, acting as secretary in the absence of Mr. J. P. Herring, the regular secretary, who was unable to be present. There was a good attendance of teachers and several visitors, including Mr. Wm. H. Sprunt, chairman of the County Board of Education, and Mr. B. B. Humphrey, an enthusiastic committeeman of Middle Sound.

School work in general was discussed, features of the meeting having been an address by Prof. Catlett upon the best method of teaching geography and agriculture in the schools. Mr. Sprunt responded to an invitation and spoke of the plans of the Board of Education and its purpose to make New Hanover public schools the very best in the State. Mr. Sprunt's remarks were enthusiastically received.

The teachers were informed that the Board of Education would encourage the largest possible attendance upon the University Summer School at Chapel Hill and that at the regular meeting Monday night an appropriation would probably be made to pay all the tuition of those teachers, both in the rural and city schools, who may attend. Prof. Catlett asks that all teachers who contemplate attending the school will furnish him their names at once in order that arrangements may be made to that end.

The county schools begin to close a very successful seven-months term the latter part of April and the first of May with the exception of Delgado, which has an eight-months' term, the same as the city schools. In each district there will be appropriate closing exercises and Superintendent Catlett and members of the Board of Education hope to attend many of these gatherings.

As the Association was about to adjourn yesterday a resolution was unanimously passed, thanking Prof. Catlett for the kindly consideration he has always shown the teachers and for his profitable services and talks in connection with the Association meeting.

INTERESTING TO MARINE MEN.

Wanton or Unnecessary Injury to Nets Punishable by Heavy Penalty.

To-morrow at 11 o'clock a case of interest in marine circles will be tried before Justice Fowler, Jno. E. Mintz, a fisherman, sues Capt. Chas. Wessell, of the tug "Rosa," for running over a shad net which he had streiched crosswise the river above Point Peter last week. Usually such suits are brought for only the actual damages sustained but Walter P. Gafford, Esq., counsel for the plaintiff, brings the present action under Section 3385 of the Code about which there appers to be very little known here. The section provides in legal phraseology that any master or other person having the management or control of a boat of any kind on a navigable stream and who shall wilfully, wantonly or unnecessarily do injury to any seine or net which may be lawfully set or fixed for the purpose of taking fish, shall forfeit and pay to the owner of such seine or net or other person injured by such action, the sum of $100. Mr. Gafford will ask for his client the full award as provided in the section of the Code referred to.

They Want an Extension.

Lumber mill men and interests identified with the cotton seed oil mill, all located in the extreme northern section of the city, have petitioned the Mayor to extend the contemplated paving of North Fourth street from Nixon to the Carolina Central bridge, a distance of about a block and a half. If the improvement is continued to the bridge, the petitioners agree to maintain a good roadway from that point to the city limits, including Hilton. As the property owners along the extension from Nixon street would probably not be willing to pay their prorata share of the cost of the pavement, it is hardly expected that the Board of Aldermen will be willing to make the improvement.

These for the Roads.

The following are the defendants sentenced in the court during past week: David Gordon, assault with a deadly weapon, two months; Ernest Gillam, larceny, four months on roads; R. L. Joyner, disposing of mortgaged property, two months; Harry Taylor, breaking and entering store house, 12 months; Dan Washington, breaking and entering store house, 12 months; Salem Bell, larceny, 12 months; Andrew Walker, carrying concealed weapon, two months; John Graham, alias Grant, carrying concealed weapon, 40 days; Jerrie Hamilton, assault with deadly weapon, two months; Ellis MacRae, larceny 12 months; Thos Branch forcible trespass, four months; Willie Jones, assault with deadly weapon, two months.

HIS HAND BADLY CRUSHED.

Another Distressing Occurrence in Connection With the Wallace Wreck.

Capt. William H. Newell, Jr., an extra freight conductor running out of Wilmington, had his left hand horribly crushed between two cars which he was attempting to couple yesterday. Capt. Newell had been sent with a train up to Wallace to bring the remainder of the wreck on the siding the night before, and it was while on the siding at Rocky Point and when hurrying to accomplish the mission and get to Wilmington that his hand was caught between the cars and mashed almost into a pulp. Capt. Newell is a son of Capt. W. H. Newell, the well known railroad man of Norfolk, and is one of the youngest conductors on the road. Great sympathy was expressed for him in railroad circles yesterday when it was learned that soon after being brought to the James Walker Memorial Hospital, in this city, at 5:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon, it was found by the surgeons in attendance that the greater portion of his hand would have to be amputated. However, the operation was deferred until this morning with the hope that as extensive an amputation as was at first thought, may not be necessary. Capt. Newell was resting quietly at 11 o'clock last night.

FUNERAL THIS AFTERNOON.

Remains of Eugene Wiggins Brought Home. Military to Attend the Obsequies.

The funeral of the late Eugene B. Wiggins, the young and popular Wilmingtonian who was the victim of the fatal accident at Wallace, N. C., night before last, full particulars of which were given in yesterday's paper, will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon from Saint James' Episcopal church by the rector, the Rev. R. W. Hogue, and the remains will be laid to rest in Oakdale. The remains reached the city on a special train yesterday morning at 8 o'clock and were silently borne, after being prepared for burial, to the saddened home of the mother, Mrs. E. B. Wiggins, No. 503 Ann street, where many friends called during the day to express their sorrow and to comfort the sadly afflicted mother and sister.

Young Mr. Wiggins was a zealous member of the W. L. I. and was highly esteemed by his comrades in that organization. By order of Capt. Wm. F. Robertson, commanding, the company is ordered to assemble at its armory this afternoon at 3 o'clock, in regulation uniform, for the purpose of attending the funeral services in a body. The annual sermon which was to have been preached to the company by its chaplain, the Rev. R. W. Hogue, in St. James' church this afternoon at 4 o'clock, has been postponed until next Sunday at the same hour.

By virtue of his being the oldest son of the late Eugene B. Wiggins, the young man was also a member of the Third North Carolina Infantry Association and members of that organization are also called to assemble at the armory at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of attending the obsequies.

Date is Changed.

The date for the performance of "The Prodigal and the Dove" to be given by the Wilmington Light Infantry dramatic club has been changed from next Friday night to the following Tuesday night, April 19th. The change was made on account of the lecture by President Woodrow Wilson of Princeton University, Friday night at the First Presbyterian church.

CLARK'S FEMALE MINSTRELS.

Variety Show Coming to Wilmington Next Monday Evening—Seat Sale.

For the first time since they have been on the road, and that has been about twenty five years, Duncan Clark's Female Minstrels will make their appearance in Wilmington Monday night, playing at the Academy. Seats for the performance now on sale at Plummer's. Of the minstrels, the Des Moines (Iowa) Daily Leader said:

"The patrons of the Capital City Opera House were treated to a variety show last night by Duncan Clark's Company. It was what the crowd went to see and they evidently went away satisfied. It's as good a show of the class that has struck the town this season."

Highlander's Maiden Trip.

The Columbia State of yesterday notes with satisfaction that the steamer "Highlander" made her initial trip from that city to Georgetown, without a mishap or delay, in 23 hours. The State says: "A telegram received last night bore the cheerful information that an agreement had been reached for the through traffic arrangement with the Clyde Line. Manager Love, who returned to Columbia yesterday from a trip to New York, Wilmington, Georgetown, and other points, is now now soliciting freight shipments among the merchants here."

Recital Tuesday Evening.

The recital to be given by the Wilmington Piano Club on Tuesday evening in the Elks' parlors is looked forward to with interest. The programme was handed in too late last night for to-day's publication. Such talent as is shown in its make-up goes to prove its rendition supreme. Vocal music is included, as well as a whistling solo, by Miss Elizabeth Oiten, which is always enjoyed. Tickets may be secured at the door.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, APRIL 10.

LABOR NEEDS OF THE SOUTH.

This question is one in which every State south of Mason and Dixon's line is deeply concerned. There is a scarcity of labor throughout the cotton growing and other agricultural regions, and even the cotton mills have found labor so scarce that the management fear to shut down for any "curtailment" period for the reason that it was apprehended that the labor would drift away and could not be secured again or replaced by other operatives.

Not only is there need in the South for more labor but there is a strong demand for the immigration of people with capital, thrifty settlers who have means, and an intelligent and desirable class of people who can aid materially in the development of the varied resources of this part of the country. This is the reason why the South Carolina Legislature established an immigration bureau and has appointed an immigration commissioner, and for a like reason the State authorities of North Carolina and other States are taking active steps to induce immigration.

South Carolina made no mistake in making a live newspaper man her immigration commissioner. He went to work immediately and his method of publicity has attracted wide attention all over the country. He made a trip to New York a few days ago and his interview with the widely circulating New York papers has been a tremendous advertisement of the purposes of South Carolina. Not only has the commissioner's interesting interviews been given wide publicity, but influential newspapers all over the North and West are discussing this Southern immigration movement in a manner that is valuable to the end in view. Many of the papers, aiming to be fair, but misunderstanding the real conditions in the South, as is too lamentably and inexcusably the case, bring in matters that are ridiculous and in many instances hurtful. The ignorance thus displayed by many influential papers in the large Northern cities leads us to believe that the average Southern newspaper is more familiar with conditions in the North than some Northern editors are with affairs in this portion of the republic.

The New York Journal of Commerce is a paper for which we have great respect, For practical and able editorials we turn to that paper as a standard. It is among the Northern papers which comment on the Southern immigration movement, and here is what that staunch and able paper says:

The Legislature of South Carolina has established a State Department of Agriculture, Commerce and Immigration, largely with a view to inducing the settlement in the State of "desirable" white laborers for the better development of agricultural industries. The commissioner just appointed at the head of that department, Mr. E. J. Watson of Columbia, has been in this city for some days and intends to spend the Summer in Europe, his mission being, as he expressed it in a newspaper interview, to induce "desirable investments and settlers from North European and American points to come to South Carolina—the real garden spot of the world, possessing a soil and climate producing some crop the year round." "We have," he says, "thousands of acres of land lying idle at this time, and it is the province of the new department to bring about their development." He thinks that the "Middle South" generally has special attractions for settlers, what it mainly needs being "diversified and intensified farming," a greater variety of crops and better cultivation. Its chief lack is "intelligent white labor of Saxon origin."

Mr. Watson gives an explanation of the situation which prevails through a large part of the South beyond the Northern tier of States. The effect of establishing manufacturing industries has been to draw white labor from the land, while the tendency of the negro laborer is to drift away to the commercial centres where he is worse off, and to "railroad construction camps" in the North and East. The result is that the farmers are "crying for labor with which to work their crops." The need is coming to be severely felt not only on ordinary farms but on the cotton plantations, where lack of a sufficient labor force, especially in the picking season, tends strongly to check extension of the area of planting. That the South is capable of a much higher industrial development, especially in the cultivation of the soil, does not admit of doubt. It only needs capitol and labor under intelligent and enterprising direction to become a much more prosperous section and to sustain a much larger population. Perhaps the people do not fully realize that the drifting of the negro away from the and the failure of immigrants from the North to settle upon it so rapidly as is is desired are largely due to social and political conditions that change very slowly. No doubt the negro presents a difficult and perplexing problem, but his treatment in many places is such as is hardly calculated to attach him to the land or to make him a cheerful and efficient worker. Nor is the welcome apt to be given to the settler from elsewhere such as to make him feel at home and eager to grow up with a community of which the atmosphere is not always congenial.

Many immigrants who are coming to this country, and who may be induced to come, ought to find, as Mr. Watson thinks they would find a "bright future awaiting them" in the Southern States; but much depends upon the social and political conditions that would surround them. The first comers would be the best advertisers of its attractions, if the attractions were found, and the stream once started would probably be rapid enough. But why from "Northern Europe" or of "Saxon [o]rigin?" It would seem as though the section would be peculiarly adapted to those from Southern Europe, especially Italy. Many industrious and capable immigrants come from there and settle in a less congenial climate with less congenial occupations in the North, who ought to be "desirable" and efficient in the Southern fields. Conditions are apparently improving there in the respects that will make that section more attractive to "desirable investments and settlers from North European and American points," but the transition is slow and population needs to be attracted rather than "induced."

The comments of the Journal of Commerce are interesting, but it falls into error when it gets its opinions from political sources that the negro's treatment "is such as is hardly calculated to attach him to the land or make him a cheerful and efficient worker." The cases are extremely isolated where the laboring portion of the negro population is at all dissatisfied, and in most instances where there are race troubles they effect a very small and turbulent class of negroes with which the average negro has nothing to do and in nine cases out of ten blames for the trouble that is brought about. As to "social and political conditions," the South is handling those matters in a way that will attract desirable people, but if a lot of people at a distance who are supposed to be the friends of the negro settle the social and political conditions in their way, we could not live in the South ourselves much less attract good people from the North or anywhere else.

The Journal of Commerce, we regret to note, makes another very serious error in saying: "Nor is the welcome apt to be given to the settler from elsewhere such as to make him feel at home and eager to grow up with a community of which the atmosphere is not always congenial." This is astounding coming from an enlightened American newspaper in the face of the statement that the South is standing with arms wide open to welcome all good people, and the tens of thousands of Northern and Western and foreign people who have settled in the South can testify to the error into which the Journal of Commerce unwittingly or purposely falls. When Northern and Western people come here and find that "the social and political conditions" are being handled in the way the South handles them they stay and soon "grow up with the community." If they were to come here and find the "social and political conditions" reversed according to the plans of theorists at a distance they would buy a return ticket back North. Ten years ago in North Carolina we had these conditions reversed for a while, and we have seen Northern Republicans who came here to invest turn away and go to other points in the South. After normal conditions were restored, the settlers gladly came, got a hearty welcome and the amalgamation with our people, industrially, politically and socially, is so thorough that there is no line of distinction. Nearly a hundred per cent of the Northern settlers in the South can tell the Journal of Commerce that its statement is not in accordance with conditions, and that there is not only an inviting but attractive field in the South fo all classes of people.

ELECTRIC POWER FOR COTTON MANUFACTURING.

The live manufacturing town of Rock Hill, S. C., which admiring residents there denominate the "Hub of the Piedmont," is the first of the surrounding towns to utilize electric power from the big plant of the Catawba Power Company, located on the Catawba river, twelve or fifteen miles from Rock Hill. The Victoria mill of that growing little city had its power turned on recently, and the service has been eminently satisfactory. The pole lines to the Arcade mill and the Manchester mill, also Rock Hill enterprises, have been completed and these two factories will also be operated by electricity before many days.

The power plant is at a point on the Catawba river six or eight miles below the inter-State line, and some twenty-odd miles from Charlotte, which is one of North Carolina's cities in the lucky group contiguous to this great electric power plant. Recently we noted that Charlotte had made a contract with the Catawba Power Company for electric lighting, and a number of the Charlotte cotton mills will also utilize electric power at an early day.

The cities which are within the transmission zone of the Catawba power plant are indeed fortunate, and it is an advantage for manufacturing purposes that might well be envied. Its importance may be seen from the fact that in a short while thirty or forty cotton mills will be operated by electric power secured by harnessing up the waters of the Catawba.

For nearly two centuries of Anglo-Saxon habitation of that region, the splendid water power at this plant has gone to waste, but as time progesses the great resources of our country are being brought into development as the needs and enterprise of a progressive people require.

Steadily we are gathering in the resources with which nature has so liberally endowed the fairest region of the earth, and future generations are to see in this favored part of the South an empire of industry and agriculture, teaming with a thrifty and happy population.

ONE LUNG

May be gone and yet the remaining lung will be amply sufficient to sustain a vigorous vitality. As a general thing few people make more use of both lungs than is equivalent to a healthy use of one lung.

These facts are all in the favor of the man or woman with weak lungs, even when disease has a strong grip on them.

Many a person living in health to-day has the lungs marked by the healed scars of disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery makes weak lungs strong. It cures obstinate, deep-seated coughs, bronchitis, bleeding lungs and other conditions, which, if neglected or unskilfully treated, find a fatal termination in consumption.

"I had been troubled with lung disease and pleurisy for a number of years and the trouble had almost become chronic," writes A. S. Elam, of Howe, Ia. "Had several kinds of medicine from different physicians without much benefit. At last wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce and got his advice, and began using his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I have used twenty-five bottles. When I commenced taking it I had no appetite, my system was completely run-down, had no ambition to do anything. Now I feel better than I did before I got sick. Have a good appetite and am able to do my work. I sincerely recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to all who are afflicted as I was."

Those who suffer from chronic diseases are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free All correspondence strictly private. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A NOTED WOMAN.

COUSIN OF LATE U. S. PRESIDENT ZACHARY TAYLOR.

76 Years of Age, Recommends Vinol for Old People.

Mrs. Sarah J. Windrom of 429 W. Erie St., Chicago, a member of one of the most distinguished families in the country, comes of Zachary Taylor, 12th President of the U. S., and grandniece of the Alexander Hamilton, who signed the Declaration of Independence, writes:

"Vinol is a godsend to old people. I am 76 years old, but I feel active and well to-day, thanks to the vitalizing effects of Vinol.

'My appetite is all that could be desired. I sleep well, and my mind is clear, and I am interested in the affairs of life as I was fifty years ago.

"When I was young cod liver oil was dispensed in a greasy, unpalatable form, and it fairly gagged me to get it down. Vinol is so different, palatable and nourishing to mpoverish blood.

"I feel so much stronger, both mentally and physically, since I use Vinol that I feel it my duty, as well as a pleasure, to recommend Vinol as the finest tonic I ever used in my life.

Such words of praise from a person of such high standing must be accepted as unquestionable proof of the superiority of Vinol.

Do you wonder that our Vinol has such a strong hold upon the esteem of doctors and patients? We know of nothing else that will accomplish such wonderful results; and, remember, Vinol is not a patent medicine.

There are hundreds of old people in this vicinity who need just such a strength-maker and tissue-builder as Vinol. Their blood is thin and sluggish—Vinol will enrich and quicken the blood and build up the system. It is so much better than whiskey and stronger stimulants, which always have a bad after effect and weaken and break down. There is nothing in the world so good for the weak, the aged or the run-down system and to cure a hanging on cold or hacking cough as Vinol, and because we know so well what it will do we are always ready to refund every cent paid us for it if it fails to do what we say. Try it on our guarantee.

Phenomenal Shipment of Tobacco.

For the first time in the history of the tobacco business a shipment has been made in one order, to one concern, of a solid train of Manufactured Smoking Tobacco.

On March 1st, the Norfolk and Western Railroad started from Durham, N. C., a train consisting of 30 cars, all loaded with "Duke's Mixture," the entire lot of tobacco being a purchase made by Messrs. Sprague, Warner & Co., Wholesale Grocers, of Chicago, Ill.

Durham, where this tobacco is manufactured, is the famous tobacco town situated in the Golden Tobacco Belt of North Carolina. "Duke's Mixture" was named many years ago for Mr J. B. Duke, the famous tobacco man, and its enormous growth has made it his pet, and the greatest care is exercised in its manufacture.

This shipment contains 2,880,000 single packages of tobacco, and would furnish each male adult in the United States with five smokes each, or one package to each of the soldiers of the standing armies of the United States, England, France, Germany, Italy, Austria and Russia.

This train has gone direct from Durham, N. C., to Chicago, Ill., and has attracted much attention en route, and arrived in Chicago March 9th.

Fattening Poultry.

Being in close touch with a great many who have used cramming machines for fattening and taking their statements as to the results obtained, I feel that I can safely predict not only a gradual increase in the number used, but at no distant date that number will increase by leaps and bounds until the cramming machine will be a common adjunct to the poultry farm, says W. H. Allen in Poultry Keeper.

Fattening has been carried on for years, to some extent by the ancient Egyptians, and in more recent times in England, Belgium and France. In the United States it has very recently been taken up, and, though the users of the cramming machine at the present may be scattered over a somewhat large territory, the sum total of cramming machines used will aggregate a very large number. There is a poultry man in Ohio who uses twelve, a party in Iowa ten and a party in Illinois who fatten on a very large scale, fattening thousands yearly.

NEW YORK, April 9.—The cotton market opened easy at a decline of four points to an advance of three points and ruled generally easy during the early trading under scattering liquidation and some selling for short account, following lower cables than expected and a disappointing visible supply decrease. Weather accounts while not unfavorable were not so bullish as anticipated, and while at first the new crop months came in for some commission house support, they eased off later with the old crop positions. Trading was exceedingly quiet, prices after declining six to seven points showing little tendency either way.

HARD TO EVEN HOBBLE.

A good example of how far cases have gone in Wilmington.

Nothing is more dangerous, if neglected, than kidney disease. If allowed to run on it attacks every organ and every part of the body. Here's a Wilmington case in point, in which a well known citizen points the short way out.

E. Poezolt, merchant tailor of Eighth Front street, residing at 315 North Sixth street, says: "My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills and in her case they proved to be an effective remedy. She suffered with her ankles and could scarcely get down stairs in the morning. We thought it was rheumatism and her ankles would be all puffed up every morning so she could hardly hobble around. Since obtaining Doan's Kidney Pills at R. R. Bellamy's drug store and taking them she seems like another person. She is better in the morning, the swelling left her ankles and from the great relief she obtained we are only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Gastonia is to have a public library.

— On account of the prevalence of smallpox compulsory vaccination has been ordered at Concord.

— Work is being rapidly pushed on the Charlotte and Durham Railroad between Pittsboro and Greensboro.

—The banks of Raleigh have organized the "Clearing House Association of Raleigh." Mr. Joseph G. Brown as president.

— Ground was broken on Wednesday for the new union railroad station at Durham. J. P. Pettigrew & Co., of Lynchburg, Va., are the contractors.

—A movement is on foot among some Northern capitalists, which makes it not only possible, but very probable, that an electric car line connecting Concord and Charlotte will be built. Parties interested have agreed to put up $200,000 if local capital to the extent of $100,000 can be secured.

— Rocky Mount Record, April 6: Sylphia Barnes, a colored woman about 60 years old, was run over and killed by the train that runs on the Nashville branch, between Rocky Mount and the Falls, Friday. She was sitting astraddle of the rail, eating fish, and the train was backing to the oil mill. Several on the train and one person nearby saw her and tried to warn her by hollering and the person on the ground nearly reached her jn an endeavor to pull her off the track, but it was all in vain. The woman was so drunk that she did not pay any attention to the warning and the car struck her in the back, killing her instantly. Her whole body was mangled and she was cut in two. She died with a smile on her face and death was so instant that she must not have known what struck her.

— Dunn Guide, April 5th: A number of the members of the Democratic Executive Committee met in the court house at Lillington Monday. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Hon. W. A. Stewart. After several complimentary and timely remarks as to the progress in Harnett under Democratic rule by the honored son of Harnett, Hon. D. H. McLean and others, it was decided to call the convention of Harnett for the first Monday in May to appoint delegates to the State and to the District conventions, and to fix the time for the holding of the county convention. It was found that great hope for a grand Democratic victory was in evidence from all sections, each member bringing good news and glad tidings from the four quarters of the county.

— At the recent burial of Mr. I. E. Avery, city editor of the Charlotte Observer, which took place at Morganton, a slight, girlish figure, clad in black and wearing a widow's veil, attracted attention. It was Miss Nancy Forney Johnston of Birmingham, Ala., Mr. Avery's finance, who arrived yesterday morning. The wedding was to have taken place on the 28th of this month, and in the last letter that Mr. Avery wrote he spoke of his great happiness in the love of this splendid young woman. Her presence in heavy mourning has been one of the most pathetic incidents of this most sorrowful occasion. It is announced that Miss Johnston will at once institute proceedings to change her name to that of the man she loved and mourns.

— Mount Olive Tribune: The editor was shown by Mr. J. D. Aaron a few days ago some of the noted strawberry weevils. These insects have been doing considerable damage to strawberry blooms for the past few years, and have already put in their appearance this season.

— A fatal affray occurred at Pikeville, this county, last Saturday afternoon between several negroes Policeman Albritton. The officer attempted to arrest a negro, when Nathan Johnson, another negro, interfered and was shot dead by the officer. Two other negroes, who participated in the affray, were arrested and placed in jail at Goldsboro. The officer was badly cut by the negro whom he shot. The preliminary hearing has been postponed until April 13th to await developments in the officer's condition.

— Called to his own door and shot dead in the presence of his family is the fate that befell Parks Gannon Meisenheimer shortly after 7 o'clock Friday morning, at Norfolk, Va. Talbot L. Drury, of East Brambleton, did the shooting, and he says he is glad his victim is dead. Drury says Meisenheimer attempted to assault his 15-year-old daughter in the woods of the outskirts of Brambleton Thursday evening. The girl, he says, is weak minded and is not considered bright by her family and neighbors. Drury called at the home of the dead man on Clay street and after a short conversation fired three bullets into the body of Meisenheimer. Meisenheimer was married some three years ago to Miss Bessie Mahaley, of Salisbury N. C., and was the father of two boys, Donover, aged four years, and Harry, aged two. Young Meisenheimer went to Norfolk a year ago last September, bringing with him from Salisbury N. C., his family and father. The body was shipped to Salisbury for interment.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver, of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in the back and sides, no appetite, and growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters, and to my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store.

We Shall Buy a Million

Bottles of Liquozone and Give Them to the Sick.

We have purchased for $100,000 the American rights to Liquozone. We thus control the only way to kill germs in the body and end a germ disease. We want the sick to know this product, and at once. So we make this remarkable offer. We will buy a million 50c bottles and give them to a million sick ones. Will you—if you need it—let us buy one for you?

Costs $500,000.

We publish this offer in every great newspaper in America. The cost of the offer, we expect, will reach $500,000. We pay that price because it seems the only way to quickly let the sick know what Liquozone does.

The greatest value of Liquozone lies in the fact that it kills germs in the body without killing the tissues, too. And no man knows another way to do it. Any drug that kills germs is a poison, and it cannot be taken internally. Every physician knows that medicine is almost helpless in any germ disease.

Liquozone does in germ troubles what all the drugs, all the skill in the world, cannot do without it. It cures diseases which medicine never cures.

Acts Like Oxygen.

Liquozone is the result of a process which men have spent over 20 years in perfecting. Its virtues are derived solely from gas, made in large part from the best oxygen producers. By a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time, these gases are made part of the liquid product.

The result is a product that does what oxygen does. Oxygen gas, as you know, is the very source of vitality. Liquozone is a vitalizing tonic with which no other known product can compare. But germs are vegetables; and Liquozone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetal matter. Yet this wonderful product which no germ can resist, is, to the human body, the most essential element of life.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone kills the germs, wherever they are, and the results are inevitable. By destroying the cause of the trouble, it invariably ends the disease, and forever.

—Winston Sentinel, April 6:—In the Federal Court at Greensboro yesterday S. A. Hauser, of this county plead guilty to the charge of counterfeiting. The Telegram says: "His counsel, Capt. R. B. Glenn and Judge Starbuck, of Winston, made convincing pleas in behalf of Hauser, and Judge Boyd was prevailed upon to deal with him with some degree of leniency. He gave the accused, who submitted to the charge, his choice of paying $500 or going to prison for twelve months." He chose to pay the fine. ——It is learned that Alex Osborn, who six years ago killed a man named Sluder in Ashe county, has been captured and will be tried next week in Ashe Superior Court. Geo. P. Pell, Esq., of this city, has been engaged by the defence.

Dr. Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Sir: This is the first certificate that I have ever given as to the merits of any medicine, but I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Biggers' Huckleberry Cordial. I consider it the best remedy that I have ever used in my family for Stomach and Bowel Troubles. 50c invested in a bottle of this medicine to be used in the beginning of any stomach trouble will often save life as well as a large doctor's bill. I have a friend whose life was, in my opinion, saved by the prompt use of Dr. Biggers' Huckleberry Cordial. For sale by all Druggists, 25 and 50c per bottle.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

Did you ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of Dandruff and to prevent Baldness by feeding the germs which cause it, with Canthrarides, Vaseline, Glycerine and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is successful because it attacks and kills the parasitic germ which feeds on the hair roots.

It is the original and only genuine scalp germicide manufactured.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SUNDAY MORNING, APRIL 10.

EX-QUEEN OF SPAIN DEAD.

Grandmother of King Alfonso Died at Her Residence in Paris—Daughters at Her Bedside.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

PARIS, April 9.—Ex Queen Isabella of Spain, grandmother of King Alfonso, died here at 9:45 o'clock this morning of influenza with complications. The American embassy which is opposite the palace Castille, on the avenue Kleber, the late queen's residence, was early informed of the queen's death and Ambassador Porter was among the first to call and sign the palace register.

The Infantas Isabella, Eulale and Maris, daughters of the late queen, were at the bedside when she died.

The queen had been afflicted with the grippe for two months, which gradually affected the lungs. Last night she became unconscious and the death agony began at 7 o'clock this morning. The three infantas and Prince Ferdinand, of Bavaria, husband of the Infanta Maris, were summoned to the bedside, but the dying queen did not recognize them.

The papal nuncio was summoned to administer the last sacraments, but owing to his absence from Paris the last rites of the church were administered by the vicar of the church of St. Pierre. The queen's death followed shortly afterward. Prince Ferdinand immediately telegraphed the news to the King of Spain, to Foreign Minister DelCasse and to all the European sovereigns.

It is understood that King Alfonso will not come to France for the funeral, as he did not come for the funeral of his grandfather, King Francis, who died in April, 1902.

The deceased queen had been one of the conspicuous figures of Paris since she left Spain. After her abdication, in 1870, she continued to live with queenly magnificence here, giving largely to charitable and religious works.

IN A BAD FIX.

Young Man in Jail for Killing His Sweetheart and Her Father.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

JACKSON, MISS., April 9.—Ed. Gammons, a young white man, was brought to the city to-day from Water Valley, where he was arrested for killing Jake Kimsey and his daughter near that place. He was brought here to prevent his being violently dealt with. Gammons is well educated, and to-night at the city jail he freely admitted the killing, saying that Kimsey had forbidden him to marry his daughter, with whom he was in love. He says he did not intend to kill the girl, but went to the house to tell about having killed her father in the field. He says he does not know what made him shoot the girl, unless it was that she cried. He said he was in a bad fix and expected that he would hang for his deed.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

J. Stanley Parker, of Danville, Shot Himself at a Hotel in Greensboro.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 9.—J. Stanley Parker, aged 28, of Danville, Va., blew out his brains in the office of Clegg's Hotel at Greensboro at 7 o'clock to-night, dying without regaining consciousness an hour later. Parker was married on Wednesday at Pelham, this State, to a lady from Roanoke, Va. It is said that upon his return to Danville that night he received notice of his discharge from his position.

He came to Greensboro yesterday, saying he was on his bridal tour to Atlanta. To-day he walked into the office of Clegg's Hotel, wrote four letters, placed the muzzle of a pistol to his temple and shot himself through the head.

One of the letters, addressed to his bride, expressed regret for the deed, which nevertheless felt obliged to perform. The bride is prostrated with grief.

USURPATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE.

Representative Bourke Cockran, of New York, Urges Members Not to Submit.

AN IMPASSIONED APPEAL.

The President's Recent Order in Relation to Pensions for Age Disability Furnished the Text—The Galleries Filled With Listeners.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The recent executive order of the President relating to pensions on age disability, today furnished the text for an impassioned appeal by W. Bourke Cockran, of New York, to the members of the House to uphold the dignity of that body by refusing to submit to what he alleged to be the usurpation of the legislative authority of Congress by the executive. In anticipation of Mr. Cockran's speech, almost every seat on the floor was occupied and the galleries were filled to overflowing. From the moment Mr. Cockran began to speak until he had concluded, he held his audience in a manner that gave evidence of their interest in his first speech since he returned to Congress.

If, he said, the President's order is recognized by the House "what fragment of power is left to the House." By one stroke of the pen, he declared, the President had appropriated $30,000,000 and he said it was a matter with which Congress must deal if it has any regard for its own powers or if it be animated by a shadow of loyalty for the constitution which created it. He vigorously asserted that "we are here at the parting of the ways," and inquired, "if this order be tolerated without protest by the House what power is there that the executive order cannot usurp; what fragments of control over the country's purse!" Continuing, he said "that this pretence of interpretation of the law is but a hollow mockery and a play of words," and he added, "it is known by the man who wrote it as shown by the order."

In his opinion the steady decline in the dignity of the House had attracted much attention. In sarcastic vein he declared that the President allowed Congress the privilege of declaring war, and he was loudly applauded by the Democrats when he added: "But the President makes war when he chooses to."

If this condition was hopeless, he said, amid more Democratic applause, "if we cannot rescue ourselves from the degradation and deceptitude into which we seem to be hurrying, then we had better leave the condition to be lamented rather than to be discussed." The Congress, he declared, had so lost caste that to-day there was not a paper outside of Washington that gave more than one or two paragraphs about its proceedings.

"Why has this decline come upon us? Why has this deceptitude overtaken us?"

Amid an outburst of Democratic applause he declared that when the House shall stand on its rights, "the greater will be the security of liberty and the wider the progress of humanity."

He charged that the House had been remiss in its duty in not asserting its rights. He received vociferous applause from both sides of the chamber when he declared, notwithstanding Speaker Cannon's utterance, that public opinion must come to the rescue of Congress, "the public opinion of the United States is here. We are its agents, its creation." Raising his voice to a high pitch he said that the House is the sanctuary of our constitutional temple. We are the priests to whom it is entrusted, and, he added, pointing his finger at the Speaker, "you sir, are the high priest, responsible for the method in which that trust shall be discharged."

He declared that the President's order was the usurpation of power "not by appropriation, but by interpretation," which he attributed to the pusillanimous failure of Congress to do its duty to itself. Congress had control of the purse and if it would exercise that control, he insisted, every privilege that belonged to it will come back. He dwelt at length on the inalienable right of the House to originate revenue bills and urged the members to assert that right.

He attacked the rules of the House, and said that if the members were not to be trusted, "we ought to be abolished." He also spoke of the system in vogue of introduing bills and petitions by "silently dropping them into a basket, as if, "he said, "you were performing an act of doubtful propriety to be carried on surreptitiously." He further attacked the rules of the House which, he said, forced members to rise and discuss questions having no reference to the bill under consideration, "thus reducing the whole proceeding to the level of opera bouffe."

Reverting to the President's order, Mr. Cochran contended that the secretary of the interior justified the action upon the precedent of President Cleveland. "Well, sir," he said, pacing up and down the center aisle, "if that be so, then in God's name let us condemn that act of Mr. Cleveland's as vehemently as the act of any Republican President." The disposition to justify almost everything by pleading "that Mr. Cleveland did it," he vigorously declared, "is the highest of compliments that can be paid to a man by any Congress in our political history."

Continuing he said: "You tell us Mr. Cleveland did it, and therefore it must be regular. If this act was committed by Mr. Cleveland," he said, "the confidence which he enjoys adds to its danger and does not lessen it." He closed amid a storm of applause by appealing to both sides of the House to unite on a declaration of rights," beyond which the aggression of the Senate or of the executive shall not go."

The President and the secretary of the interior found warm supporters in Messrs. Dalzell, Grosvenor, Gibson, Calderhead, Lacey and Hepburn. The former maintained that it made no difference how many millions of dollars were involved in the President's order, because the secretary of the interior distributed the money voted by Congress pursuant to the rules of evidence established by the pension bureau. Mr. Grosvenor believed that the country and the old soldiers would approve of the order, and that the money necessary for putting it into effect would be included in the forthcoming Deficiency bill and would be supported by a majority of the House.

The debate was upon a resolution introduced by Mr. Cockran directing the Committee on the Judiciary to investigate the recent pension order. It had been reported from the Committee on Rules with a recommendation that it lie on the table and this was adopted by the narrow majority of three votes, the Speaker having his vote recorded in the affirmative.

Three Republicans, Messrs. Cushman, of Washington; Littlefield, of Maine, and McCall, of Massachusetts, voted with the Democrats against tabling the resolution.

The House adjourned until to-morrow, when eulogies will be delivered on Representatives Burke and Foerker of Pennsylvania.

In the Senate.

In the Senate to-day, Mr. Spooner took occasion to reply to the Democratic strictures upon the conduct of the Postoffice Department, and before he concluded had traversed quite an extensive political field. He defended the course of the postmaster general in connection with the irregularities of his department, and charged that the effort on the part of Democratic senators to secure a congressional inquiry was in the interest of party politics. He also defended the President against the charge of violating the law, which he said had been made by the Democrats, declaring that in nothing was the President so much distinguished as his determination to enforce the law.

BAND OF YOUNG THIEVES.

Stole $12,000 from a Residence at Waterbury, Conn.—Part of the Money Recovered and Arrests Made.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WATERBURY, CONN., April 9.—Four boys, suspected of connection with a robbery in Lanesville, Conn., Thursday night, when $12,000 was stolen from the home of Henry Davis, were arrested at their homes here to-day. About $8,000 was found in their possession. The boys are Fred Blodgett, aged 16; Edward Weimer, aged 19; Samuel McCormick, aged 18, and Benjamin Plant, 20 years old.

John Turner, 15 years old, had been arrested at New Milford, charged with complicity in the same robbery. He is said to have made a full confession and took the officers to Brookfield Junction, where they found $1,200 hidden under a stone wall.

All the boys are members of respectable families. According to the story they told the police, John Turner was in Waterbury a week ago, and told them he had seen Davis counting his money through a crack in his bed-room door. Some one suggested that they rob the man and the four boys accordingly walked with Turner to New Milford. Thursday, while Davis was away from home, they pried open the window of his bed-room and taking a trunk containing the money, carried it to the woods and opened it. They returned to Waterbury last evening and were soon traced by detectives. After their arrest they told the police where the money was hidden. The sum of $10,213 was recovered. Davis insists that he had about $12,000 in the trunk.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS.

Kings County Delegates to State Convention--Senator McCarren Says It Will Instruct for Judge Parker.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Democratic conventions were held to-night in the 21 Assembly districts of Kings county for the selection of three delegates and alternates from each district to the State convention at Albany on April 18th. Senator McCarren carried 17 out of 21 districts. In accordance with the desire of Charles F. Murphy, resolutions for an uninstructed delegation to the State convention were adopted unanimously in Deputy Fire Commissioner Doyle's district, the seventh, and in the ninth district.

Senator McCarren had passed the word that the custom in Kings county of not instructing the delegates should be strictly observed, but he declared that the State convention will instruct as a body for Judge Parker.

MABEL PAGE MURDER.

Police Arrested a Man at West Newton, Mass., Charged With the Crime.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WEST NEWTON, MASS., April 9.—After a baffling search of nine days for the murderer of Miss Mable Page, who was stabbed to death at her father's house in Weston, on March 31, the State police arrested to-night Charles L. Tucker, a former railroad employe, who on Monday apparently established an alibi as to his whereabouts on the day of the tragedy. Tucker will be arraigned Monday, charged with murder. Tucker admitted to the police on Monday that he was in Weston on the day of the tragedy and that he passed the Page house.

The attention of the police was again turned to Tucker through the discovery that several of his statements by which he had proved an alibi were false and to-night he was arrested. Up to two weeks ago Tucker was baggage man on the Boston and Albany railroad.

RISE IN THE MISSISSIPPI.

Large Forces at Work on the Levees in Vicinity of Memphis.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

MEMPHIS, TENN., April 9.—The Mississippi river to-night marks a stage of 38.7 feet on the gauge at this city and continues to rise slowly. The United States Weather Bureau officials believe that the water will come to a stand to-night or to-morrow at a maximum stage of not more than 39 feet.

So far the levees in the vicinity of Memphis on both the Arkansas and Mississippi sides have withstood the rise and have given no grave occasion for alarm. Large forces of men are employed in topping and strengthening the embankments at such places as seem to be the weakest or most heavily subjected to pressure from the pent up waters.

THE CATHOLIC CHURCH.

Missionary Conference Addressed by Father O'Grady, of N. C.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—At the missionary conference at the Catholic University to-day Rev. Father O'Grady, of North Carolina, discussed methods of training for missionary work in the South, paying high tribute to the people of that section.

A movement was started to organize a force of trained evangelists for work in the South. The collection of one cent a week from every Catholic child in the North is to provide funds.

The immigration problem was discussed in its various phases at yesterday's session of the annual meeting of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, in Philadelphia. The subject was presented in an address by Frank P. Sargent, United States commissioner of immigration.

NO CHANGE IN WAR SITUATION.

Russian Opinion That Japs Will Try a Flanking Movement from Taku-Shan.

MAY ATTACK AT NEW CHWANG

Preparations for Defence of the Town Are Complete--Estimated That There Are Now 400,000 Russian Troops in Manchuria.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 9, 5:25 P. M.—The best informed military circles no longer anticipate a Japanese landing at the head of the Liao-Tung Gulf. They believe the Japanese have missed their opportunity, the Russians being now too strong.

A Russian officer who accompanied the Japanese armies during the war with China said: "I witnessed the Japanese landing at Wei-Hai-Wei. It was excellently performed, but there was no enemy to offer resistance, the Chinese having fled. Yet it required four days to disembark 21,000 men. If the Japanese attempt to land anywhere within striking distance of New Chwang we can easily concentrate a force to oppose them faster than they can disembark."

The opinion now is that the Japanese will try a flanking movement from Taku Shan, west of Antung, at the head of the Gulf of Corea, in connection with their advance on the Yalu river, but the authorities here make no display of nervousness, manifesting the utmost confidence in the plan of campaign marked out by General Kuropatkin.

Expect Attack at New Chwang.

NEW CHWANG, MANCHURIA, April 7, via Che Foo, China, April 9.—General Kuropatkin's visit to New Chwang has inspired boundless confidence. The commander-in-chief ordered 10,000 reserves to reinforce this position, in view of the expected Japanese attack, while an additional force of 15,000 men is ready to concentrate upon this place at short notice if necessary.

It is estimated now that there are 400,000 Russian troops in Manchuria.

General Wogack has taken over the command at New Chwang from General Kondratsvitch. The preparations for the defence of the town are complete.

STATE TEMPERANCE MOVEMENT.

Chairman Bailey Gives Status in the State. A. & M. Defeats U. N. C.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., April 9.—Chairman J. W. Bailey, of the State Anti-Saloon League, issued an elaborate statement to-day giving the exact status of the temperance movement in the State. It shows there are 54 counties having prohibition, 25 have saloons, 13 have dispensaries, two have distilleries, but no retailing allowed. These last are Yadkin and Davie. There are saloons in 66 towns and 23 others have dispensaries.

The A. & M. baseball team won from the University this afternoon in an uninteresting game, the score being 9 to 2. Rain during the morning until the hour for the game made big inroads on the attendance and seriously impaired condition of the grounds. Hart pitched for Carolina, McLaurin for A. & M. Carolina got four hits and A. & M. 12. The A. & M. made six runs in the seventh inning. Summary: Earned runs, A. & M., 5; Carolina, 0; bases on balls, McLaurin, 1; Hart, 2; two base hits, Knox, 1; Donnelly, 1; struck out, by McLaurin 7, by Hart 2.

THE FLEET AT PENSACOLA.

Will Depart for Various Destinations About the First of May.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

PENSACOLA, FLA., April 9.—It has now been decided that the combined fleet will depart from Pensacola about April 28th, or perhaps May 1st, but not later than that date. Some of the vessels will leave before that date, particularly the Caribbean squadron, which will relieve the training squadron at Colon, in order that the vessels of the latter fleet may participate in the record target practice, but the battleship squadron, which is to go on the European cruise, will not leave port until the last of the month, when they will go to New York and there fit out for the long voyage. The officers and men are looking forward to the European cruise with much interest.

THE RUSSIAN EASTER AT ST. PETERSBURG.

Celebrated With Imposing Ceremonies, Scene at the Palace—The Great White Czar and His Court.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 9.—The Russian Church and the Russian people, at midnight, celebrated the resurrection of the Saviour. For dramatic effect this Russian Easter service is unrivalled. For this one night the spirit of genuine democracy reigns in autocratic Russia. Upon the acclaiming of the arising of Christ the great White Czar salutes with a kiss the sentry posted at the palace door and the highest dignitary and the lowest mujik exchange the joyful tidings with equal freedom. In honor of the great religious festival Russia's capital was adorned and illuminated. From every building hung the national colors and in every window burned a candle, a privilege permitted only on this red letter night of the Russian calendar. The scene at the palace was one of stately magnificence. The ceremony was carried out in accordance with the strictest formalism. The rank and beauty of the Empire were assembled. The gorgeous blaze of multi-colored uniforms, the picturesque national dresses of the court ladies and the glitter of stars and decorations, made a brilliant picture. At the door of the chapel two gigantic grenadiers attired in superb uniforms acted as sentinels. The doors leading to the imperial apartments were guarded by the emperor's Mamelukes and Arab footmen. At half past 11 o'clock a gun boomed from the fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul on the opposite side of the Neva. Within the church the solemn service was proceeding in the presence of only the officiating clergy and court chaplain Yangsheff. Behind the Ikonastas which concealed the Holy Sepulchre from all eyes, the mystery took place. When the court chaplain in gorgeous vestments, approached the golden gates, the doors flew open and the winding sheet was lifted. The tomb was empty. Turning as Christ's disciples did, the clergy, with the banners of the church aloft, passed to the door seeking the vanished Saviour. As it reached the entrance the Emperor's Arabs threw wide the portals, revealing the imperial procession. Simultaneously the imperial choir of men and boys, which is unequalled even by the Sistine choir of Rome, began to chant softly. Slowly and majestically the procession moved into the chapel, the clergy retreating to the high altar as it advanced.

The Emperor escorted his mother, who was arrayed in spotless white. The young Empress, also attired in white, leaned on the arm of the heir apparent. Before the splendid altar, the imperial procession halted and Court Chaplain Yangsheff in resonant tones announced in the old Slavic tongue of the Russian church, "Christ is risen," "Christ is risen indeed," replied the emperor, in echo. As these words were pronounced the choir burst forth into a triumphant paean. Outside a signal rocket shot up into the sky, the cannon at the fortress roared and with one voice all the brass-throated bells of the city rang out a wild peal.

Then followed scenes of rejoicing, men and women, irrespective of class, embraced and kissed each other before returning home to the Easter feast.

Similar rejoicings occurred at the palace. After the Pascal hymns and mass had been sung the emperor embraced, first the empress, then his mother and then the other members of the imperial family, kissing each three times and exchanging the salutations, "Christ is risen," "He is risen, indeed."

Robert Catlett, a wealthy farmer of Sevier county, Tenn., who has been tried five times on the charge of being an accessory in the Whaley murder, in January, 1896, for which two men already have been executed, was acquitted yesterday at Louden, Tenn.

Pheasant Raising For Pleasure.

In a few years pheasants will be bred by nearly everybody who keeps fancy poultry for pleasure's sake. The study of wild bird life, especially among such beautiful birds, is rarely equaled in anything else, besides forming a peculiar beauty to your home. Varieties that are very expensive now will in a short period of years either become extinct or more plentiful. Pheasants, if given the same care that well bred poultry receive, will do well in any state in the Union. They suffer with the same diseases that affect poultry. If kept on a damp, wet ground you will find them ailing from rheumatism and the gape worm.

I would recommend the beginner to get the golden and silver pheasants first, and then add to his collection as his knowledge grows. Nearly all varieties are hardy when young if given the right variety of feed and runs. Almost any small hen will answer the purpose of a mother. Ring necked pheasants can be bought for $5 per pair, goldens for $25, and others among the rarer species come higher, but they do not as a rule cost as much as the fancy poultry.—Country Life In America.

Difference In Eggs.

No matter what is said to the contrary, there is a great difference in the flavoring of an egg. Eggs laid by an active, healthy hen supplied with good fresh food are much finer in flavor, color and smell and taste than those that are laid by hens that are the common scavengers of alleys, back yards and pigpens.

Raising Squabs.

To raise squabs successfully a house that will be free from dampness and rats is needed, for if rats once get a squab it is almost impossible to keep them out of your house. It is best to have two or more nests for each pair, for some pairs breed very fast, and if there are not enough nests they will fight instead of breeding. It pays to keep your house clean and free from lice.
